DESIGN DIGEST

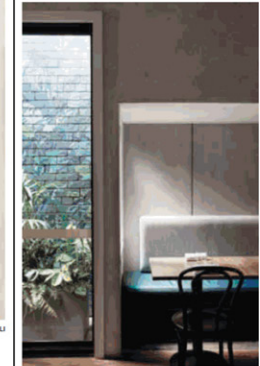

Simply beautiful

By using uncomplicated materials, these designs celebrate the minimalist aesthetic. Compiled by ISABELLE CHESHER

GUFRAM ROSSOCACTUS FROM LIVING EDGE When the first Gufram cactus was released, it represented the imaginative ethos of the psychedelic '70s. In 2010, it was re-invented in rich red, with only 500 in existence. The statement piece can also function as a coat stand. livingedge.com.au

LV WALL LIGHT FROM REMODERN The Remodern family describe their brand as "essential minimalism", and their LV Wall Light is no exception. Made from recycled concrete with a pivoting arm, the cylindrical fittings are uncomplicated and subtle. Due to the nature of its material, each piece is unique. remodern.com.au

MOON SYSTEM SOFA FROM SPACE FURNITURE The late, great Zaha Hadid designed this sofa for B&B Italia, proving her prowess extended beyond architecture. The flowing shape appears to shift as you walk around it, so be sure to place it in the centre of the room. spacefurniture.com.au
