

The Sydney Morning Herald
spectrum
MARCH 10-11, 2018

Flower power

How wildflowers and writing helped heal Holly Ringland. PAGE 8

ESSAY
Alexander McCall Smith's source of solace

4

THEATRE
John Bell on the man who saved Paris

6

MODERN LIFE
Diary of a bad housewife by Dusty Miller

16

VERONICA PEARCE

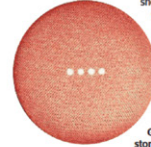

THE SOURCE

Pilar Paredes

SHOW & TELL

The new Google Home mini comes with all the power of a built-in assistant which allows you to control your TV shows and music with only your voice. The hands-free device is designed to project 360-degree sound and is available in chalk, charcoal and coral. Home Mini Speaker, $79, Google store.google.com

RELAXED ELEGANCE

Now summer has ended, it's time to surround yourself with warmer touches. Weave Home has designed a collection of soft furnishings to reinvigorate your sofa or bed. This striking velvet cushion combines sunset tones and linear patterns. Paloma Cushion Blush, $69.95, Weave, weavehome.com.au

ITALIAN FLAIR

This vibrant velvet stripe ottoman is part of a wider range of stylish furnishings by Italian fashion house Missoni Home. Its compact design allows it to fit snugly in just about any space. Coomba Pout, $832, Missoni Home, au.amara.com

NEW RETRO

Tamara Watt, the designer behind Retro Print Revival, creates distinctive lamps using retro fabrics. The playful collections are full of colour and environmentally friendly, with materials sourced locally. Taking its cue from the '70s, the Rocket lamp features a rich ochre-coloured linen shade and collect timber frame. Rocket Table Lamp Tall, $290, Retro Print Revival, retroprintrevival.com

AUTUMN ABODE

Dulux's new colour collection Kinship offers a way to make your home cosy as the autumn leaves start dropping. It features rich and earthy terracotta shades, as well as lighter neutral hues. Wall Wash and Wear in Natural White, $74.95/4L and Wall Partition Wash & Wear in Maliko, $91.40/4L, Dulux, dulux.com.au

DESIGN FINISH

For more than 50 years, Finnish lifestyle brand Marimekko has been designing distinctive products, collaborating with leading designers in their fields including Carina Seth Andersson. The Swedish designer is known for her unique glass and ceramic work. This minimalist vase is made from amber-coloured glass, mouth-blown to create the subtle organic form. Urna Vase, $315, Marimekko, marimekko.com

WICKER WORKS

This cane armchair, by New Zealand father and daughter design studio Douglas and Bec, has a curvaceous silhouette that is reminiscent of Parisian brassiere chairs. Crafted from natural materials, it combines a steam-bent American ash frame, rattan-weave lining and flaxen-tone plush seat. Arch Chair, $3960, Douglas and Bec, douglasandbec.com

SLIDING DOORS

This streamlined sideboard, from Remodern, features a pop of orange in throwback to the 1950s. The timber-veneered structure incorporates a sliding door and an internal removable shelf so items can be out of sight but easily accessible. Slide Casegoods Sideboard, $2035, Sean Dix, remodern.com.au

FINAL WEEK OF THE BIG RUG SALE! 20-60% OFF SELECTED STOCK

Sydney's home of natural floorcoverings for 50 years
Paddington 9550 2066 Mosman 9960 6921 Marrickville 9569 6999 www.naturalfloor.com.au

NATURAL FLOORCOVERING CENTRES